

Jill's Quiz — Easter 2023

1. Can you give three different names for this plant?

- a)
- b)
- c)

2. Can you give the names of this plant, given that it is named after an animal and a planet?

- a)
- b)

3. What habitat does this plant like and what months does it flower?

- a)
- b)

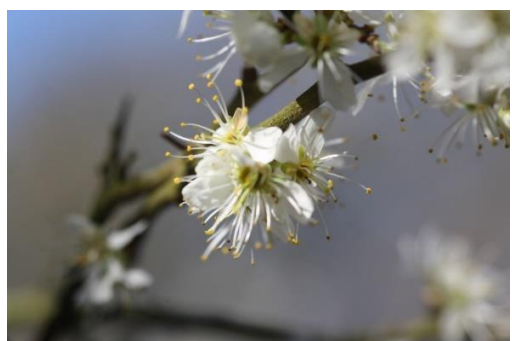

4. a) Can you give two different names for this plant?

- a)
- b)
- c) —and where can it be found?

5. Can you name this spring hedgerow shrub which flowers before it comes into leaf?

6. a) Can you identify this bird?
b) Can you describe its common call?
c) Where can it be found in winter?

7. a) Can you identify this bird?
b) Where can you find it in Barnsley?

8. a) Can you identify this bird?
b) Where does it migrate from?

9. a) Can you identify this bird?
b) What common garden bird is it related to?
c) What is another name for this bird?

10. Can you name the three birds in this family? — Goldeneye; Goosander;
What is the other?

11. What sort of bee is this?

12. Elm is the food plant for which butterfly?

13. Can you identify this butterfly?

14. Can you identify this beetle?

Is it

a) Scarab

b) Oil Beetle

c) Lily Beetle?

15. What is the food plant of the Green Letter Hairstreak?

Is it

a) Cowberry

b) Bilberry

c. Cranberry?

16. I glow in the dark and can be found on the Trail in Thurgoland. What am I?

17. My flower head is yellow and I flower well before the leaves. What am I ?

18. I am very secretive and hide in the reeds. I can be found at Old Moor Wetlands and Potteric Carr. What am I ?

19. I have a graceful neck, and as an Adult I am white with an orange bill. What am I ?

20. I have conspicuous eye-spots on each wing and my larval food plant is Stinging Nettle. What am I?

My thanks to Ron Marshall, Pete Riley and Doug Brown for providing the photographs. Jill

HAPPY EASTER